The Werribee Mercy Art Show is an opportunity to showcase the talents of the Werribee Mercy Community. It is an opportunity for artists to display and sell their works. As a community we hold dear the value of innovation; we strive to create a dynamic environment which encourages creativity and diversity.

Who can enter?

Entries are invited from staff, patients, Schools, clients of the hospital as well as members of the local community. These will be considered in 5 broad categories: Oils/Acrylics, Watercolour, Photography, Open medium, Youth Category, Primary & Secondary School entries.

When is it on?

The works will be displayed in the public spaces of the hospital from the 5th September and finishing on the Sunday 14th of September 2008.

Conditions

- Artist is required to ensure the work is suitably framed (except for stretched canvas) and ready to be hung and appropriate to one of the categories listed on the registration form.
- As a community event in a hospital that upholds the values of compassion, respect, innovation, stewardship and teamwork, only works that are suitable for display in this space will be considered. The committee reserves the right to decide which works will be accepted for display.
- Entries will be displayed at the risk of the individual artist; although the hospital will make efforts to ensure the safety of the works through its usual security arrangements, it can accept no liability for works damaged or stolen whilst on its premises.

What does it cost?

Artists may display their work with an entry fee of $10 per art work. Maximum of 2 pieces of art work per artist.
